

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, On November 19, 1957, a boy child was born and christened Michael James Horigan; and,

WHEREAS, Mike grew to manhood in rural Frankfort, Kansas, and received diplomas from Frankfort High School, Colby Junior College, and KU Medical Center; and,

WHEREAS, Mike married Daphne Shrouf in 1980, and they have been blessed with one daughter, Gentry, setting the stage for the next major event in Mike's life—grandfatherhood; and,

WHEREAS, Mike's sister, Janie, states that at one time he was a useful member of the Horigan family, but his usefulness is drawing quickly to a close as he approaches the age of Geritol, dentures, prunes and Medicare; and,

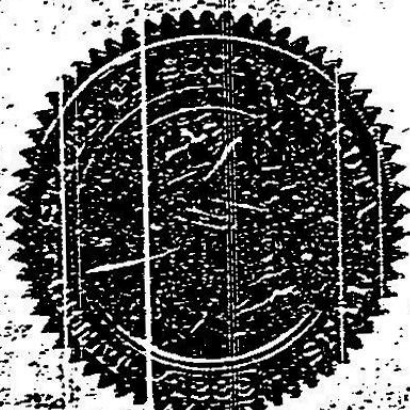

WHEREAS, Mike Horigan is racing to his THIRTIETH birthday, an event which will end his trustworthiness and relegate his social life to rocking chairs and lap rugs; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper for the Governor to proclaim to all of South Dakota, Kansas and Missouri that Mike Horigan is just plain OLD:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim November 19, 1987, as in South Dakota, and I urge all of Mike's many friends, relatives and classmates to mock him and rub it in, because he is now a member in good standing of the "Over-the-Hill Gang."

MIKE HORIGAN IS OVER THE HILL DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventeenth Day of November, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

George S. Mickelson
GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

John E. Buelton
JOHN E. BUELTON, SECRETARY OF STATE